SUBJECT: Motorcycle Theft Arrest

Blacksburg Police have arrested five people in connection with a late night motorcycle theft from an area apartment complex.

Police were originally called to Foxridge Apartments at 3:59 Thursday morning where a resident had chased some people believed to have been stealing a motorcycle. During the investigation officers checking other complexes spotted the suspects in Collegiate Suites about 3 miles away from the original complaint. After stopping the suspects the investigation revealed that they were driving a van that had been taken from one of their employers without permission. The driver of the van has been charged with Unauthorized Use and is listed below. A rented U-Haul truck was located with a stolen motorcycle hidden beside it in Christiansburg and traced back to the group. The motorcycle had been stolen from Blacksburg earlier that morning.

As the investigation continues police are learning that at least two of the suspects falsified their identity. One (Quallis) has posted $2000.00 bond and left the area. The other (Robinson) remains incarcerated in the Montgomery County Jail.

Calvin Quallis (Originally identified as Kevin Johnson) age 20 of Newark, New Jersey, Maribeth B. Coluni age 26 of Blacksburg, Kevin Lamont Green age 26 of Newark, New Jersey, Leo Travis Robinson (Originally identified as Eddie Saunders) age 31 of Maplewood, New Jersey and Wilbur T. Greene age 22 of Newark, New Jersey were all charged with 1 Count of Grand Larceny. Coluni was also charged with Unauthorized Use of a Motor Vehicle.

Wilbur Greene was held without bond; Coluni and Robinson's bond was set at $5000.00 and Kevin Greene's bond is set at $2500.00. No court date has been set.
